Weekly Update

This week has been a much more settled week after the business of the past month.

I have had the privilege of observing a number of our teachers. It is always so humbling to see the lengths that staff go to to meet the diverse needs of our students on a day to day basis. So many of these small acts of kindness go unnoticed by everyone else, but could be the difference between a child having a good day or not.

The teacher that greets every child by name. The teaching assistant that quickly picks up on a child struggling and goes to support so that they do not get anxious. The subtle look between staff across a classroom to signal when something needs to change. The comment about a particular football team or remembering that a child goes swimming on a particular night.

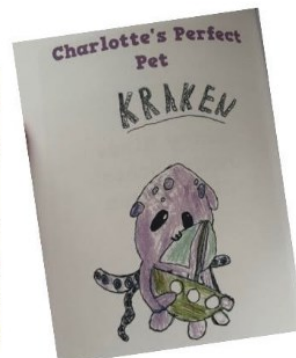

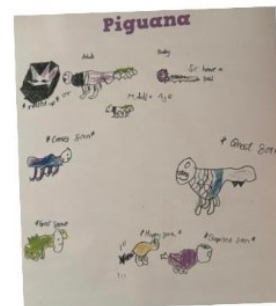

We are so fortunate to have a team that truly care.
Thank you Henry Hinde.

Perfect Pet Competition Book

It has been lovely to finally receive our Perfect Pet Book that includes many of our children's pets that they have designed! This is going to be displayed near the office in our Art Gallery for all to see. Thank you to the children that entered their Perfect Pet drawing into the competition. Many thanks to Miss Nixon for organising and arranging this in her own time. What a fantastic keepsake!

Children will have another Art competition opportunity to create their own Art superhero. This should have been sent home by this Friday and is due by Friday 28th March to be given to Miss Nixon. We look forward to seeing all the wonderful designs the children create!
